

Quandoo Launches in Singapore, Lebanon and South Africa and Outlines Accelerated International Expansion

Quandoo, the World's fastest-growing online reservation service for restaurants, launched its first reservation site in April 2013 in Berlin, Germany. From September 2013 until May 2014 the company expanded its reach into eight European countries and promptly gained market-leading positions in Germany, Italy, Austria and Turkey with a strong and growing position in the UK. With its launch in Poland in the beginning of October and three new countries in November Quandoo has initiated the second wave of its global roll-out. Quandoo's success is driven by strong relationships with partner restaurants – backed by an industry-leading reservations platform.

Berlin, 17 November - Quandoo announces that it has launched its reservation platform in three new territories: Singapore, the Middle East and South Africa. In all three territories the company has established regional offices, providing a locally-adapted reservation platform to its partner restaurants and their diners.

Quandoo now plans to roll out its service across Asia. It's Asian headquarters will be positioned in Singapore, from where the company aims to drive further expansion across the Asia-Pacific region. Quandoo's latest shareholder, the Tokyo-based Recruit Holdings who has already successfully established Hotpepper in Japan as one of the world's largest restaurant networks, will support Quandoo's rollout in this region.

In October of this year Quandoo launched its service in Poland and established its CEE Headquarters in Warsaw. Already incorporating over 100 partner restaurants only one month after its launch, Quandoo Poland became the official reservation partner of Warsaw Restaurant Week.

Local offices in Cape Town, Beirut and Dubai will drive expansion in these emerging regions for local commerce services.

In July this year, Quandoo raised in its 4th financing round 25 million USD to accelerate its international expansion. Quandoo intends to have established itself in 20 countries by the beginning of next year.

Commenting on this announcement: Philipp Magin, Founder and CEO of Quandoo said:

“Although we only launched eighteen months ago, Quandoo's aggressive expansion strategy has already given us leading positions in a number of European markets, and we are proud to have already seated 3.2 million diners in our partner restaurants. We plan to continue to push Quandoo into new markets, with a particular focus on Asia. Our aim is to be the number one brand for on-line restaurant reservations world-wide and we have the strategy and financing in place to achieve this.”
